CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE—2009—10 REGULAR SESSION

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 139

Introduced by Assembly Member Brownley
(Coauthors: Assembly Members Blumenfield and Portantino
Coauthor: Assembly Member Blumenfield)
(Coauthor: Senator Pavley)

January 20, 2009

An act to amend Section 25081 of the Government Code, relating to local government.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 139, as amended, Brownley. Local government: county boards: regular meetings.

Existing law requires the board of supervisors of a county to hold regular meetings of the board at the county seat.

This bill would authorize counties to hold one or more regular meetings of the board at a location within the county, if the change of location is adopted by ordinance, resolution, bylaw, or other rule at a regular meeting of the body, and notice of the change in location is posted in a location that is freely accessible to the public no later than the prior regular meeting of the board.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 25081 of the Government Code is
2 amended to read:

3 25081. By ordinance the board shall provide for the holding
4 of regular meetings of the board at the county seat. The board may
5 change the place for the holding of one or more regular meetings
6 of the board to a location within the county other than the county
7 seat if both of the following occur:

8 (a) The change of location of the regular meeting of the board
9 is adopted by ordinance, resolution, bylaw, or other rule required
10 for the conduct of business by the body at a regular meeting of 11 the body.

12 (b) Notice of the location change is posted in a location that is 13 freely accessible to the public no later than the prior regular 14 meeting of the board.
